AT THE 'VILLE.

W. J. Blodgett of Randolph was in town a few days last week, and called on some of his old friends.

Mrs. H. L. Parker was in Littleton a few days last week, and while there was expected the club will clear very nearly a guest at the "gentlemen's night" of the Littleton Woman's Club.

The new library books are all catalogued, and are given out to the public as fast as they can be covered and labelled. About 300 have just been added to the library and the trustees expectato order quite a number more before the new catalogue is prepared. One hundred and fifty-two of these books, with a fine black walnut bookcase, are the legacy of a public-spirited citizen, I. W. Sanborn, and include some very valuable and interesting titles. The remainder bave been purchased by the trustees and the selection is, as a whole, the most expensive, and the most valuable lot of books ever purchased in one order, not quite as many works of one order, not quite as many works of fiction, but many standard books of the F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. highest class.

Mrs. Ed Dodge of Wells River, formerly Miss Florence Goss of this place, visited old friends in town last week.

There was no meeting of the Shakespeare Club last week, but the program scheduled will be given at the close of the year's work. The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. L. Wells tomorrow. The annual "gentlemen's night" will probably be the first week in April, but the date is not yet fixed. The Lyndon Woman's Club meets today with Mrs. Charles Norris, the subject being "Modern American Writers."

Mrs. F. J. Willey and her trimmer. Mrs. Pease, have gone to the city markets for the spring millinery styles.

Machinery has arrived for the manufacture of the Bagley safety yokes, which is a new branch of industry here. Gordon Bros. are to make the wooden parts, E. T. Wood the brass, and S. B. Hutchins will do the plating. Harry Stahler is the man in charge of their manufacture. The graded school began Monday.

Miss Alice Hutchinson has gone to Lowell, Mass., where she will sing in one of the city churches, and also continue her musical studies in Boston for a while. Mrs. M. M. Harris came from Montpelier to spend part of her spring vacation with her husband.

George Staples of Lennoxville, P.Q., takes G. M. Cameron's place as stenographer at the railroad shops. Rev. George Mead has so far recovered

The Shakespeare club meets with Mrs. E. L. Wells this week, the subject of the meeting being "Greece and the Grecian Religion." Their "gentlemen's night" is expected to be celebrated during Easter week. The day is not yet decided.

There is some talk among the younger matrons of the place of organizing a mother's club for the sake of enlarging their experience and advancing their children's interests. It ought to prove a most successful one.

The Virginia Heiress. This play, given under the auspices of the Lyndon Woman's Club last Wednesday and Thursday evenings, was an excellent one, and the cast was good also. All the actors took their parts well, and a few, especially, showed an unusual amount of dramatic talent. Mrs. B. G. Morrison was most successful in depicting the imperious and wilful heiress, Imogene Courtleigh, while Frank Willey was a sufficiently odious villain as her scheming cousin, and Tom Neagle, in the role of her lover, husband and rescuer, was almost perfect. Mr. Neagle's part was the most difficult of all, being so tragic as well as sentimental, but his acting was grand. In his case there was no step from the sublime to the ridicu-lous but he kept his part up to a high level all through, without once overdoing Miss Christabel Brown was a bewitching gipsy maid, and her scenes with R. Leonard were exceedingly well done, The Spanish dance in the fourth act was very beautiful and should have had a hearty encore. E. B. Chase and Miss Sadie Ayers, as Buck Tyson and Nance, the gipsy tinkers, brought down the house with their every appearance. M., Mrs. Blanche Lawson of district No. 6. The meeting was opened in form by Riverside Chapter of Hardwick and the banquet by the ladies of the Congregational society, the meeting was resumed after which the degree was exemplified in a very creditable manner by Coral Chapter. Interesting remarks were given by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Taylor, also Mrs. Chase and J. H. McLoud.

The members were highly entertained by a reading and piano solo by Miss Gertrude Lawson. The grand officers remained over for Wednesday evening to be present at the meeting of Riverside Chapter, at which time special work was

Death of Mr. Tillotson.

L. A. Tillotson died at his home here last week Tuesday, having been a great sufferer for some time with stomach trouble. He is survived by a wife and six children, three sons and three daughters, Mrs. Belle Parker, Mrs. Sadie Chapman of Wolcott, Mrs. Clara Hubbard of Craftsbury, George L. and William L. of Morrisville and Ormal L. of Hyde Park. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Langley, of Manchester, N. H., and a brother, Chester F. of East Montpelier. The funeral was held at the Universalist church in Wolcott Thursday afternoon ar two o'clock, Dr. I. P. Booth of Morrisville officiating. Mr. Tillotson was 62 years of age and had spent the greater part of his life in Wolcott and Craftsbury, having lived here about two years. He was a highly respected citizen.

The difficulty between the stonecutters and manufacturers, which resulted in the suspension of work at the granite sheds for more than a week, was satisfactorily adjusted last week and the 500 men that have been out pending a settlement returned to work at once. The trouble was the outgrowth of the failure to establish a bill of prices and this caused a suspension of work. The settlement provided that the cutters receive $3 per day for three years and that they be paid

PEACHAM.

There was a very pretty wedding at Frank Pollard's, Wednesday, when his daughter Bertha was united in marriage after the play, which attracted quite a number. The attendance was not quite as good as the play deserved, but it is were the only guests. The ceremony took place at noon and dinner was served directly after. The bride wore a blue skirt and white silk waist. She received many presents both useful and ornamental, among which were some solid silver teaspoons and other silverware from the Methodist church, where she has served many years as organist. After dinner several of her young friends came in to offer congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Munger took the 4 o'clock train at Danville for Orwell, their future home, where Mr. Munger has charge of a large

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Jenkins are both in very poor health. Mr. Jenkins has been much worse of late.

Mrs. Emily J. Colby of Glover has bought of D. M. Silsby the place he owned at the village opposite Doctor Colby's residence, and is to move from Glover in the near future. Price $600. The closing concert of the singing school is now advertised to be held Monday evening. The school is to be assisted by Rev. E. Newell's family from Lyndon Center and perhaps others. Last year at this time people were well along with sugaring, but it does not look very much like sugaring here yet this season, as it remains cold and windy. No day has it thawed so as to have the snow soft or tread down at all.

Mr. Potter, who is at present stopping at his nephew's, C. W. Peck, spoke from the pulpit at the Free Baptist church Sunday morning to the usual-sized congregation. He presented a very fine discourse from St. John 15:14. He was also present and assisted at the evening service, Sunday.

Mrs. James Holtham has been at South Barton the past week helping care for her sister, Mrs. Doyle, who is very low. A. C. Dennett has moved from South Barton to his place in town on the road toward Barton. Mr. Dennett is in poor health and was unable to work, so has returned to his home in town.

Fred Page, who has been at Montpelier, has returned to town and is now at his father's, Oscar Page. At the close of services, Sunday, George Gordon and wife went to visit Mrs. Gordon's father and mother, Silas Ball and wife, and on their way from their home their horse stepped into a hole in the road breaking its leg which made it necessary for it to be killed. Rev. Mr. Blake held services at the Union House, Sunday afternoon. It is expected the new pastor of the Free Baptist church at Sheffield is to be at the Union House once in two weeks and Mr. Blake once in two weeks, which will give a service there each Sunday afternoon. More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nerv-ous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nervine and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by F. G. Landry and Flint Bro's., Druggists.

E. Currier and his mother are moving to Lyndon Center. Easy Way to Cure Catarrh. Breathe Hyomei and Kill All Catarrhal Germs. Money Back If It Fails," Says W. B. Eastman.

There is no dangerous stomach drugging when using Hyomei. The healing and aromatic balsams which compose this wonderful treatment are breathed through a neat pocket inhaler that comes with every $1 outfit. In this way the germ-killing and healthgiving Hyomei penetrates to the most remote cells of the lungs. It searches out and kills disease germs in the air passages of the head, throat and nose, soothes and heals the irritated mucous membrane, and absolutely drives catarrh from the Such remarkable results have followed the use of Hyomei by the best people of St. Johnsbury that W. B. Eastman has the greatest confidence in its power to cure catarrh. He believes in it so thoroughly that he will give his personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure, the purchaser to be the sole This is an unusual offer and the first time that any medicine or treatment for the cure of catarrh has been sold in this way. It it cures, the expense is trifling, while if it fails, the cost is absolutely nothing. It you are fortunate enough not to be troubled with catarrh tell your friends of W. B. Eastman's offer and get them to take advantage of it.
